Dear Judge Warner,

I hope this message finds you well! I saw that you haven't accepted the group listserv invitation yet, so I wanted to reach out in case you have any questions about it. While joining is, of course, optional, it is a great way to stay in touch with your 17 JLCS colleagues who have already joined and have been sharing information through the group. If you would like to be reinvited to the group, please let me know and we can resend the information.

Thank you again for your contributions to the JLCS program! We look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Sarah
