Judge Keithley,

Thanks for getting organized quickly this week to participate in our program. I wanted to tell you that we are not going to cover your significant other's meal on Tuesday. Look forward to seeing you in a week.

Hi There, Thank you so much for the information! And potentially covering the dinner cost, that's nice too. I will fill the form out, but it will be later today, I am taking my mom to the doctor (she's ok) this afternoon. But I will send it in! We are happy to stay at the Silver Legacy, sounds great!

Thanks again!

Judge Keithley,

Don't worry about all of the questions at all! I need you to fill out this form and return it to me as soon as possible, preferably by the end of today, as that is our way of reserving you a room. For the reimbursement, I've also attached that form so that you can fill out the necessary information. For the dinner, all guests must pay $65 to cover the cost, so yes, he may attend if you cover that additional $65. Thank you,

Brooke Ellis

Hello Ms. Ellis,

I have just a few questions about the conference. I will be driving to Reno and planned to just submit a mileage form at the end of the conference. Please let me know though if there is a different process. Also, I was wondering about the hotel. Is there a particular hotel associated with the conference that is preferred by NJC, or do we make our own selection and reservations. And for the dinner, I am traveling with my significant other. If I cover his cost, can he attend the dinner as well? This is my first NJC event, so I apologize for all the questions.

Thanks very much!

Clare

Subject: Ready for Reno - Judicial Leaders in Climate Science?

Welcome to the Judicial Leaders in Climate Science Program (JLCS)! We're less than three weeks away from convening in Reno for our first course. In preparation for Reno, we will convene for the first JLCS Cohort Zoom call on Wednesday, March 6 at noon PST/3 pm EST. Please save the date on your calendars and we will send you a Zoom link and more information that week.

Reno Agenda. Our agenda for gathering at NJC is near completion, and you will see it in the coming weeks. It combines training on climate science and judicial leadership. We will enjoy full days of learning, 8 am to 5 pm. (We finish at 3 pm on Thursday, March 14.)

JLCS Cohort Dinner. You also may wish to calendar our JLCS Cohort dinner on Tuesday, March 12, at Louis Basque Corner in Reno.

Lead Faculty Member. While you will hear from experts on climate science and leadership in Reno, I would like to introduce, and thank, Justice Stacy Boulware-Eurie from the Third District Court of Appeal in Sacramento, California. She participated in the first JLCS Cohort and has agreed to serve as your lead faculty member. She will be with us the entire time in Reno.

Travel Confirmation Forms. Please confirm that you completed, executed, and sent us the confirmation form for your travel. Please let me know if you have any further questions about your travel, arrival, or stay. You will get more information about your stay at the Silver Legacy the week before you arrive in Reno.

February 15 Climate Webinar. For those of you who missed it, we held a webinar on the US Government's National Climate Assessment, which may be helpful for your preparation. You can access this webinar, with the password [REDACTED] at: [REDACTED]

Your Colleagues. You will find the names of your colleagues from other states in the address list for this email. You will meet them and hear more about them in Reno. We still have a few spots for more states to participate, so if you know a judge in a state you don't see who would be interested in participating, please let me know. Look forward to "seeing" you on our March 6 webinar and when we gather in Reno.

Alf

P.S. Brooke Ellis, copied here, serves as our administrative assistant for this course.
