Thank you for coming to Reno to participate in our 2nd Cohort of the Judicial Leaders in Climate Science Program last week. It was an honor to learn about both topics with you and then see/hear your engagement in moving forward in your own courts. We look forward to working with you in the months to come. Later this week, you will hear more from us about the upcoming webinar and other program activities.

Travel Reimbursement Form. As I think Joy Lyngar may have told you last week, all of you are eligible for reimbursement of your transportation to (or parking at) the airport, up to $100, even if you arranged your flight through NJC's travel agent. Or, if you drove or arranged your own travel, here is the reimbursement form for you to complete and return to me for processing. Because I did not get this to you until today, you have until the end of the week to complete and submit the reimbursement form and receipts.

At any point in this program, please let me know if you have any questions.
