

Training Session Planning Template

Session Title:	Climate Litigation: THE FUTURE IS NOW (can be done as a plenary or breakout session) - This is Option One.
Session Duration:	60 minutes
Recommended Trainer(s)/Presenter(s):	Judge Manuel “Mannie” Arrieta Chief Judge, Third Judicial District
Proposed Session Learning Objectives (specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, timely) –	After attending this session participants will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand the basic/local effects of climate change in NM and in their respective communities 2. Understand how climate change will affect their specific dockets (DM, Civil, Mental Health, etc) 3. Recognize the potential case types of climate change cases that will be filed (negligence, tort, public trust, administrative appeal, injunction, declaratory action, etc).
Brief Session Content Description:	See attached PowerPoint presentation, Climate Litigation: THE FUTURE IS NOW, done for the UNM faculty and students in October 2022 (there will be some modifications to tailor the presentation to judiciary) Brief Overview: Sec I: brief summary of climate change globally Sec II: current climate change effects in NM Sec III: current or recent cases involving climate change in NM Sec IV: overview of prospective case types, challenges and process issues Conclusion: There is Hope

Suggested Teaching Methods:	Combination lecture and PowerPoint presentation
------------------------------------	--