Mike,

Thanks for your enthusiastic welcome! I'm glad Scott will be meeting up with you and colleagues on the 27th--I will be coming in a couple days later so do not mind about your kind offer to pick us up. Thank you so much for inviting me to your event on Sunday night. I will be departing on the afternoon of the 2nd, so regrettably I will not be able to join you that evening, but I look forward to seeing you at the Symposium on the 31st.

Best,
Paul

Hi Scott. Emmanuel Ugirashebuja arrives at 8:20 January 27. With your arrival a critical mass for gala activities will have been reached. On January 28 evening the three of us and other gala participants will gather. If you arrive on January 27 around 8pm, you many and I can collaborate for dinner...but I will be there to pick you up regardless of your arrival time on January 27. Looking forward to it. Aloha, Mike

Hi Mike — At the moment, it looks like I will arrive Monday evening (1/27). But, tell me, as I don't have a role at or invitation to the CCJ program in chief, do you think there will be any organized engagements before we start our conference on Friday? That might I suppose influence my arrival timing (or I may just come along and work from there). My return plan is to leave early the morning of 2/3 so I can join the gathering at your house on 2/2. Would hate to miss that! Cheers, Scott
