Hi Scott,

No worries about fuzzy, this is all pretty confusing :)

Good news is that you have FULL accreditation via ELI - you are not part of the smaller SET group that Mike is in (which has access to only our Side Event)
- so you need to pick up your badge at the Venue, which will give you access for all days and all side events (not Plenary or Leadership Dialogues it seems - oh well).

Here is the key info (from this doc: [REDACTED])

Look forward to seeing you soon! Note: rainy and chilly weather - bring an umbrella and jacket :0

Issuance/distribution of conference badges and access cards

19. Issuance and distribution of conference badges and access cards for approved participants will start from 29 May to 3 June 2022 at the Registration Centre located at Stockholmsmässan in Stockholm.

20. Approved participants may collect their conference badges by visiting the Registration Centre upon presentation of the approval emails issued by the United Nations along with their passports or government-issued photo identifications. Only approved in-person participants will be issued a conference badge for access to Stockholmsmässan.

21. Conference badges and access cards for approved participants may also be collected by representatives of the embassies/consulates-general of the delegations in Stockholm or in the region. For this purpose, a Note Verbale (with official stamp) from the Permanent Mission of the delegation to the United Nations in New York or the embassy/consulate-general in Stockholm, indicating the name (in English) and contact mobile number of the representative authorized to collect the conference badges and access cards for the delegation, must be presented at the Registration Centre along with a passport or a government-issued photo identification of the representative in order to collect the conference badges and access cards.

22. Delegates/representatives collecting the conference badges and access cards must be mindful that it is their responsibility to ensure safe delivery of the badges and access cards to members of their delegations. The Registration Centre will not re-issue duplicate access cards.

Working hours of the Registration Centre in Stockholm

23. The office hours for the Registration Centre at conference venue are as follows (subject to change):

29-31 May 2022 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
1 June 2022 8:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
2 June 2022 8:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
3 June 2022 8:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Dear Justices, Friends,

Some good news!

The UN Side Event Organizers have just informed us that the Side Event Tickets (SETs) will be ready for me to pick up for our group the morning of June 1. (I have to pick them up in one batch at a specific time.)

I will distribute them to you on June 1 afternoon of the Symposium (at the Raddison Blu Waterfront).

The UN Side Event Team will not be sending any of us a confirming email - see message below - but they are assuring us in the message below that our request for the tickets (11 total) have been granted.

Wishing you all safe travels to Stockholm!

Thank you.

This is the instruction from the UN Team: "You have requested one or more Special Event Tickets (SETs) for your event. These SETs are name-specific physical badges, which give access to the side event rooms (not leadership dialogues or plenaries). Whilst there will be no confirmation email on whether your SETs have been processed, we expect that all SETs which have been submitted on time will be approved."

Hi Mike,
Ok, see you at the conference.
There is an express train from the airport to the central station (Arlanda Express), Antonio and I both took it - very easy and fast:
<https://www.arlandaexpress.com/?lang>
Google maps shows 1 minute walk to your hotel from where you get off train:
<https://goo.gl/maps/k5n6yg2FEVwR68Yt7>
But at that late hour, you may prefer a cab.
Travel well.
