Aloha Denise -- Yes, still plenty going on with ELI, and their hooks are in me pretty deep! But I am desperately trying to stay within the part time frame of my new relationship with them so that I have time for other things, like music, writing, and, yes, enjoying Roma. It's all still a work in progress, but I am enjoying not having the pressures of running an organization.

Hope our paths cross soon!
Scott

Aloha Scott!
Wonderful to hear from you!
Unfortunately, I'm also not able to go to Oslo, except virtually.
I did the my Aula presentation last night - it was fun to "see" folks and get some nice messages from all our friends.
Jordan sounds amazing - her name sounds so familiar - I will definitely drop her a note just to connect soon!
Hope you are still enjoying the life of leisure (joke), life in Rome, and all your post-ELI adventures (well, I know ELI never ends right?).
Hugs,
Denise

Hi Denise -- I hope you are well. Just a thought re Oslo. My successor at ELI, Jordan Diamond, is on the program. I was hoping that I might make the trip there to help get Jordan properly introduced to the key players in our network, but I am being pulled off in another direction (Adelaide, Australia). I do very much hope that you and Jordan can get connected when you are together there. You will like her. She and I are good deal alike in many ways, except she is considerably younger and much smarter! Please look for her. She will be a key part of the next generation of major environmental leaders -- I'm sure of it.

I am including a link to her bio below.

Missing you and wishing that all is well in your life.

Cheers,
