Hi Zipporah,

Thanks so much for your message, and I'm sorry to hear that you're dealing with a family emergency.

Absolutely, feel free to run this by Judge Knight and get back to us. We're still coordinating and finalizing the evaluation questions and approach with Mathematica, but hope to have a more concrete answer on that topic for you soon, perhaps by the end of next week.

Thanks for checking in about the speakers as well. There have been a couple of adjustments to this list, mostly based on folks' availability. I will follow up with confirmation on the finalized list of speakers next week as well.

I hope you and your family have a nice holiday weekend.

All the best,

Jarryd

Good afternoon Jarryd,

How are you? I had a family emergency, but I'll be working on and off throughout the summer while I'm in Memphis caring for my mom. Could I run this question by Judge Knight and then get back to you? If she's onboard (I'm sure she will be), we're happy to have Mathematica in attendance. Do you have an idea of exactly what they'll be asking the judges/magistrates in attendance? We want to provide a short disclaimer to the attendees so that they know an outside organization will be at the program to collect evaluation data.

Also, I wanted to check in with you all on confirmed presenters for the September 7th program. Are the presenters listed below confirmed? Let me know if there have been any changes to the draft agenda.

- Alfredo Ruiz-Barradas
- Don Bosch
- Michael Alonzo
- Pat Megonigal
- Bob Perciasepe
- Ben Grumbles

Just let me know. Thank you!

Hi Zipporah,

I hope this finds you well!

As we look forward to the full-day program in September, I wanted to touch base with a question. We would like to invite one someone from Mathematica, a firm that we are working
